This calendar contains 180 days for 5-day schools and 1,080 hours for 4-day schools.

Mid-America Union Policy requires 180 school days, of which, 175 are student contact days. Any additional days used will need to be made up.

North Dakota State Law requires the minimum number of school days in a school year to be 175.

Variations or changes to this calendar must be approved by the Conference Office of Education. In the event of an emergency closing, notify the Conference Office of Education.
